Marriage as a union of a MAN and a WOMAN has existed before Parliament - the state has no business in redefining something that has naturally existed.

Further redefining marriage creates the presumption that a child no longer has the right to be raised within their biological family. This is a serious human rights issue for our most vulnerable.

Redefining marriage leads to the suppression of freedom of speech and freedom of religion. In times of ever encroaching Government, it is not appropriate for Government to try to interfere with an accepted part of a community - that being marriage between a MAN and a WOMAN.
