Hello

I would like to submit an opposing view to introducing same sex marriage in NSW or Australia.

My concern is that we have gone away from the principles of God if we allow homosexuals to legally marry in Australia. For example shown in the the book of Romans, from the Holy Bible, specifically, Romans chapter 1 verses 18 - 32. God warns us against going against His intended plan for creation, which also includes in this small passage of scripture, homosexuality, as an abberation against God's plan.

Also nature by design does not allow procreation in homosexual relationships. That should also serve as a warning that legalising homosexual relationships is going against God's intended design of marriage being between a man and a woman.

If homosexual marriage is legalised, how then do we stop the flood gates of other perverse relationships that may attempted to be legalised, for example, pedophilia and polygamy?
