INQUIRY INTO FAMILY RESPONSE TO THE MURDERS IN BOWRAVILLE

Name: Mr Marbuck Duroux

Date received: 24/02/2014

---

Partially Confidential

My name is Marbuck Duroux, I am the nephew of Clinton Speedy-Duroux. I will be referring to Clinton as Uncle Bubby because this was the name most knew him by. My father Marbuck was one year older than Uncle Bubby. I was born in 1995, 5 years after Uncle was murdered. I have grown up missing Uncle Bub even though we never met him. It wasn't something that dad talked about too often, but we always knew what was going on. When dad talked about him he used to tell us stories about him, like he could walk on his hands, dance like Michael Jackson and how much he loved his shoes. Everyone called him pretty boy because he liked to take care of himself and look good. Dad taught me how to dance like Uncle Bubby to keep his memory alive. Even though dad always told us good yarns about Uncle Bub, I could always see the pain in his eyes. Dad lost his battle with Motor Neurone Disease when I was 14 years old. He never got to see Uncle Bubby's killer brought to justice. All my life I have been watching my family fight for justice and I'm 18 years old and worried this is going to become my fight for an uncle I never even had the chance to meet. Something should have already been done and something needs to be done now before they see it happen again and before it is ignored all over again.

Why should get to live his life in peace, get married and have children. Colleen, Evelyn and Uncle Bubby weren't even given the chance to reach their full potential and they were innocent. If the original police had of taken Colleen's family seriously when they reported her missing, instead of assuming she was pregnant and gone walkabout maybe I would have had the chance to know my uncle. I have been asked what I would like to see out of this inquiry and the answer for me is simple. Justice! Something that my father should have seen in his lifetime, something that me and my brother shouldn't have to keep fighting for.

Kind Regards
Marbuck Duroux
