Opposition to Same-Sex Marriages

I am writing seeking your support to oppose same-sex marriages and other similar unions that mimic marriage.

In the Bible, in the Book of Leviticus, the true and only Lord our God says:

"You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an abomination;" (Leviticus 19.18), and: "If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination;" (Leviticus 20.11).

God created Adam and Eve (Genesis 2.7), male and female, and we all derive from them as a result of their, and of their descendents' human procreation - as a result of the union between man and woman, and not between man and man or woman and woman.

From the outset, marriage was instituted by God, not by man, to sanctify the union only of man and woman. And not those of any other unions.

God sanctified the union of man and woman to yield children, thereby making of them, i.e. married couples, co-creators with God, Who creates souls and Who infuses a soul into each foetus at conception.

Man has no right, and is unwise, to alter or to countermand the eternal decrees of God. In altering or countermanding His eternal decrees, man may well be fighting against God, and in favour of Satan. A pale vision of Satan appears hereunder, so that his followers may see him whom they fight for.

Also appended at the end of this submission, are two visions of Satan's kingdom of Hell.

Satan gives his followers an hour of pleasure on earth, whatever that pleasure may be, and in return gets multiple times so much more, for longer - their souls in the tortures and fires of Hell for all eternity. He's a shrewd and cunning operator, eh? That's why he's also called a Snake. To his delight, Satanism is increasingly becoming the religion of states around the world. For example, in Sydney, once a year, many thousands of people flock to watch and enjoy the parade of same-sex sex practitioners mock virtue and virtuous people. In Italy, an immigrant has been campaigning in the courts to have the holy cross removed from school classrooms. In NSW, public schools have just about been totally cleansed of Christianity.

Remarkably, many politicians and others simply cannot comprehend why so many of those schools have become mini-Hells on earth, spreading their germs and infecting society with the depravity learned from their sinful fathers or mothers. Where Jesus is absent, Satan is present, unequalled in evil, sowing and stoking his evil. Too many people simply don't want to know or understand this.

I understand that some people have conducted surveys in order to ascertain public support for same-sex marriages. I would hazard to guess that, if such surveys were available and conducted in the wicked abominable cities of Sodom and Gomorrah in ancient times, their inhabitants would surely have voted overwhelmingly in favour of same-sex marriages. Yet God utterly destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah with fire and brimstone. (Genesis 19.24-25). [Both wicked cities now lay buried at the bottom of the Dead Sea, never to rise again. The dead beneath the dead.]

The Law of God is not a democracy, for man to vote on. The Law requires man's humble obedience, so that he may not descend below the level of the beasts and thus become a demon. For example, Lucifer was once the most beautiful, intelligent, powerful Archangel created, second only to God, then befitting his role as prince of the created angelic cohort. But Lucifer got too big for his boots, became proud, disobeyed, wanted to be God, and instead became a demon, the first demon: the horrid monster Satan, and was cast into Hell along with his disobedient angelic followers.

A man can also freely choose to reject being a man and become a demon, with the exception that the demonic visage acquired is initially in his soul and therefore invisible while he is still living on earth. Later, at the resurrection of the dead and Last Judgement, then his body also assumes the visage of his demonic soul, and then body and soul, once again united, become one same horrid monster and cast into Hell for all eternity. Don't go there! Choose instead to obey the Law, the Ten Commandments.

If you were to oppose same-sex marriages and other similar unions, you may well make enemies for yourself and, perhaps, suffer pain or hostility or whatever. Jesus Christ says, in other matters, that even "if a man suffers for the whole of his lifetime, it's a short time. Then wouldn't it be better to suffer for a short time rather than for all eternity" in the tortures and fires of Hell in the company of Satan and of his infernal followers?

In the Gospel as dictated to Maria Valtorta, Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, the Messiah of the Lord, Perfect, Infinite, Almighty, says:

"It is not right to acquiesce in the mighty things of the earth when they induce acts which are contrary to God's commandments."

Same-sex marriages and other similar unions are contrary to God's commandments, contrary to nature, below the level of the beasts. "Non licit," Saint John the Baptist might conceivably say, as he said so about king Herod living in sin of adultery with his brother's wife, Herodias.

Saint John was beheaded simply for uttering the truth. Jesus Christ, Truth, fared much worse. Immeasurably worse, in actual fact. Though innocent, He was brazenly framed and unjustly convicted in sham trials, was beaten with fists and sticks and spat on, was cruelly and mercilessly flogged with countless lashings, had His Head pierced with a crown of thorns, was cursed and pelted with filth and stones as He wearily and painfully walked carrying His cross on His shoulder along the rough road to Calvary on a hot day, obviously weak and thirsty, was nailed to and hung on three nails on a cross, lost all His Blood, and suffered extreme excruciating unbearable pain that then triggered tetanus reactions and accompanying additional extreme pain. Then He died from all that extreme pain - in the near presence of His weeping sorrowful Most Holy Mother. Truth costs a lot to a "truther." It cost our beloved Jesus, Truth, plenty, enormously, immeasurably, to save us dreadful sinners. He left us with some evidence of His sufferings: His second burial cloth - His Shroud of Turin.

The Catholic Church does not teach the primacy of conscience over her rites, teachings, and dogmas. Anyone wanting or supporting or facilitating same-sex marriages and other similar unions risks damnation in Hell for all eternity. Though Satan, the created one, can mimic God, the Uncreated One, Satan is not in any way equal to God, not even just one little infinitesimal bit. The Satanic expression, "marriage equality," insinuating Satanic equality with God, is a repulsive devious ruse to confuse and defuse the righteous in order to lead them astray.

Upon earthly death, a man will see a different face of Jesus Christ - that of Christ the Judge, the only Judge in the afterlife, who will judge: those who will go to Heaven or Hell. Or to Purgatory and thence to Heaven. But in reality, it is we who actually judge ourselves individually beforehand, by the way we have chosen to exercise our free will during the time span individually allotted to us - by the way we have freely chosen to live out our lives here on earth. That's why Catholic Confessions are so crucial and indispensable when we fall into sin, so that we may rise again through Christ's forgiveness - through the forgiving Catholic priests, the unsung heroes to whom we owe an enormous debt of gratitude. At Christ's Judgement, Satan will not be there to support his faithful followers, but instead will flee in glee to his fiery kingdom of Hell to laugh at, and gloat over, his many conquests - the souls he led to damnation for all eternity. Satan is Hate, hates everyone of us with an enormous hate, and wants all of us to join him and suffer with him in his Hell for all eternity.

Beware: There is now a popular broadcaster who is cleverly hiding, and not disclosing, his being an alleged same-sex sex practitioner. He is abusing and misusing his popularity to campaign for a referendum to change the constitutional meaning of holy marriage, to an infernal one, by language trickery - cunningly inflicted upon his unsuspecting uninformed listeners. Beware. Beware.

Support and follow the Law and Ways of the Lord our God and thereby gain happiness in His Heaven, not those of Satan and thereby gain pain and tortures in his Hell. Same-sex marriages and other similar unions are an abomination, a core rite of the religion called Satanism.

"Why is man wicked?" An old righteous man named Ananias asked Jesus circa 32 A.D. Jesus replied: "Because he has killed his spirit [damned his soul through mortal sin]. And with his [killed] spirit [he has also killed] his capability to feel remorse for being unjust [for being wicked]."

As you Committee members obviously already know that laws pertaining to "marriage" are a function of the Federal Parliament, pursuant to Section 51(xxi) of the Constitution, then why is the state of NSW getting involved in a matter that is none of its business? The law is quite clear and unequivocal, except for today's scribes and pharisees, whose ancient ancestors were notorious in corrupting clear laws.

Prior to Federation and the Constitution, the founding fathers had clear meaning what "marriage" was all about - between a man and a woman only, and, at the time, same-sex sex practices were sternly prohibited as crimes. While same-sex sex practices are no longer prohibited as crimes, that does not change the original clear meaning ascribed to "marriage" in the Constitution, as patently enunciated by the founding fathers. I find it astonishing that all these things are going to be trashed by today's depraved minority.

Of course, today's scribes and pharisees will obviously want to use tricky wordy language that will enact state laws that will mimic marriage, such as have already happened in Queensland, Victoria, the ACT, but failed in Tasmania. Federally, the same-sex marriage issue failed miserably. But now NSW is going to go through the same slimy sneaky snakily trickery track, and perhaps the remaining states may follow suit.

The game plan of the same-sex sex practitioners and their advocates is, that by enacting legislation on same-sex marriages or civil unions on a state level, the legislation becomes law until such time as the High Court may rule otherwise, hoping that the Federal Government will not go through the expense of protection the integrity of the Australian Constitution in the High Court. It's pretty slimy sneaky snakily stuff, Committee members.

Employing a fancy name or phraseology does not change the substance, "marriage," which is permissible only for a man and a woman, under sanction of divine retribution. No words, howsoever they may be constructed, can ever change that divine decree, as I have already explained to you. Generally speaking, those who support a particular type of sin, themselves commit that very same sin [see Romans 1.24-32]. I would counsel a friendly caution on your part, Committee members, for that reason; and additionally for risking becoming another Pontius Pilate, who cowardly bowed, despite having powerful Roman military legions on hand, to the howls of the rabble who bayed for the innocent Blood and life of Christ, and who was thereby later punished by God.

Same-sex marriage, howsoever called, is an abomination, a putrid gangrenous limb that must be excised, otherwise the whole body gets infected. If you read the Old Testament of the Bible, the ancient Hebrews on some occasions excised the cells of male prostitutes that were set up in their land, in consequence of God's punishment. If God punishes us, it is paternal, in order to bring us back to virtue and justice, like an earthly father does to his son. The most horrible punishment is, if He does not punish us, and lets the Earth become a pre-Hell that man wants.

Appealing to putative compassion for the so called rights of those who live lives of abomination, is like the misguided bishops who had misguided compassion for paedophile and pederast priests, who later went on to commit even more grave sins and heinous crimes, and blackened the whiteness of the Catholic Church.

Marriage equality is a Satanic term, that attempts to equate Satan with God, a concept that is both laughable and blasphemous. One thing Satan likes doing most, apart from tricking his victims to join him in the Abyss, in the tortures and fires of Hell, is mixing truth with lies in order to get his own way and win, as he has done in some countries that have implemented same-sex marriages.

"Special commitment" of same-sex practitioners is a joke. The so called "love" that same-sex sex practitioners promote they have, is not love, but ravenous hunger for things contrary to nature, contrary to the Law of God, contrary to the Ten Commandments.

Freedom of religion will not be maintained. In time, the same-sex sex practitioners will want their Satanic lifestyles compulsory taught in schools, and recognised by churches, but the true and only eternal Religion of the Catholic Church will never recognise such depravity. We have seen this happen time and time again in history, and we call the individuals concerned holy martyrs, that even the great military might of the Roman Empire could not defeat. The latest Mighty Mickey mice will fail likewise.

Too many Governments, these days, are in the service of Satan, obeying his laws rather than God's Ten Commandments. In a page of the 4 Gospels, Jesus Christ says that a man gets a raw deal if he gains the whole world and thereby loses his soul in Hell. Some same-sex sex advocates risk losing their souls in Hell for much less, in order to gain a handful of votes from the same-sex sex practitioners. Be careful, Committee members, that you do not lose your own soul in Hell for just a trifling mere pittance.

Society in general is degenerating, that leads to disasters and war, which are already happening, if you just open your eyes to see. When more disasters strike and men ask where God is, tell them that men have driven Him away, and Satan has taken over His place with relish, sowing and stoking his evil in order to lead men to despair, and hopefully to suicide and Hell.

I say with the angel St. Azariah who says:

"Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit! Glory be to Jesus, through whom everything was made. Glory for all eternity for the wonderful works of God [One and Triune, and absolutely no other God]."

Is God angry with us? Who can tell? Not me! But maybe He could be uttering His voice of reproach via all the numerous unprecedented heavy rains, floods, snowstorms, cyclones, tornadoes, and earthquakes that have occurred around the world in recent years.

For your information, I have set out below the explanation how accumulating sexual sins, centuries ago, brought about the Great Flood that once destroyed all men on earth, except Noah and his family, from whom we all descend.

At the end of this submission, there are also excerpts on the existence of God, suicide, and the motherly love of the Madonna, Jesus' Mother and ours.

May our Most Holy Lord Jesus Christ have mercy on all us wretched sinners.

"Hail, Mary, Victim Mother for the sins of men, pray for us."

Best regards,

Pursuant to the Gospel according to Christ as dictated by Him to Maria Valtorta:

Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, says --

[Jesus explains how the great Flood over the whole earth came about: by accumulating sexual sins leading society to deep depravity, to the Abyss. In the excerpt below, Italian mystic, Maria Valtorta, queries Jesus about scientists finding ape-like skeletons which have led scientists to erroneously deduce that we have evolved from the brutes, the quadrumans [animals with four hands]. Society today, throughout the world, is becoming more and more Satanic, with the religion of states increasingly becoming Satanism. And the eventual outcome, as many holy Catholic Christian seers and saints have attested, will result in Three Days of Darkness when Jesus Christ, God, the Son of God, out of Mercy and Justice will send out His angels to destroy His enemies and those given to sin, and about 2/3 of humanity will perish.]

[Maria Valtorta queries Jesus:]

"I [Maria Valtorta] heard the news that they had discovered skeletons of ape-men in a cave. I was left pensive, saying, 'How can they assert this? They must have been ugly men. There are ape-like faces and ape-like bodies even now. Were primitive men perhaps different from us in their skeleton?' But another thought came: 'But different in beauty. I cannot think that the first men were uglier than we, since they were closer to the perfect model that God had created, who [perfect model] was certainly very handsome as well as very strong.' I considered how the beauty of the most perfect work [man] of creation had managed to become so degraded as to allow scientists to deny that man had been created as man by God and was not an evolution of the monkey.

Jesus spoke to me and said," 'Look for the key in chapter six of Genesis. Read it.' "I read it. Jesus asked," 'Do you understand?'

"No, Lord. I understand that men at once became corrupt, and nothing more. I don't know how the chapter is connected with the ape-man.

Jesus smiled and said:"

[Jesus replies to Maria Valtorta:]

"You are not the only one who does not understand. The learned and scientists do not understand, nor do believers or atheists. Pay attention to Me. And start reading [Genesis 6.1-4]: 'When men began to multiply on earth and daughters were born to them, the sons of heaven, O children of Seth, saw how beautiful the daughters of man [daughters of Cain] were, and so they took for their wives as many of them as they chose.... At that time the Nephilim appeared on earth (as well as later), after the sons of heaven had intercourse with the daughters of man, who bore them sons. They were the heroes of old, the men of renown.' The men who, because of the strength of their skeletons, impress your scientists, who deduce that at the beginning of the ages man was much taller and stronger than he now is, and from the structure of their cranium they deduce that man derives from the ape. The usual errors of men in the face of the mystery of creation.

You have not yet understood. I'll explain more clearly. If disobedience to God's order [which prohibited Adam and Eve from eating the forbidden fruit] and its consequence were able to inject Evil into the innocent [Adam and Eve], with all its manifestations of lust, gluttony, wrath, envy, pride, and avarice, and this injection soon developed into fratricide [of Cain killing his brother Abel], provoked by pride, wrath, envy, and avarice, what deeper decadence and deeper dominion by Satan must have been provoked by the second sin [of fratricide]?

Adam and Eve had sinned against the first of God's commandment for man. A command implied in the other one, obedience, given to the couple: 'Eat everything, but not from this tree [Genesis 2.15-16; 3.2-3].' Obedience is love. If they had obeyed without yielding to any pressure by Evil [Serpent, Satan, who appeared as an alluring jewel around the tree of trial] exerted upon their spirit, intellect, heart, and flesh [they had sex], they would have loved God 'with all their heart, with all their soul, and with all their strength,' as was explicitly ordered by the Lord much later [in the Book of Deuteronomy 6.5]. They did not [obey] and were punished. But they did not sin in the other branch of love - love for one's neighbour. They did not curse even Cain [when he killed Abel], but wept over the one dead in the flesh [Abel] and the one dead in the spirit [Cain's] in equal measure, recognising that the pain which God had permitted was just because they had created Pain with their sin [of disobedience: Original Sin] and had to be the first to experience it in all of its ramifications. They [Adam and Eve] thus remained children of God, and, along with them, the descendants coming after this pain. Cain sinned against love for God and love for his neighbour [his brother Abel]. He violated love completely, and God cursed him, and Cain did not repent. He and his children were thus nothing but children of the animal called man.

If the first sin [disobedience: Original Sin] of Adam had made man degenerate to such a degree, what measure of decadence must have been produced by the second [sin, of Cain killing Abel], to which God's curse was joined? What must have been the sources of sin in the heart of the animal-man [Cain] and what power must they [sources of sin] have reached after Cain had not only listened to the counsel of the Accursed One [Satan], but embraced him as his beloved master, killing as ordered by him [Satan]? The descent of one branch [of humanity: Cain's], the one poisoned by Satanic possession, knew no rest and took on thousand faces [of sins]. When Satan seizes, he corrupts in all manifestations. When Satan is king [in a man], the subject becomes a satan. A satan with all the unbridleness of Satan. A satan going against divine and human law. A satan violating even the most elementary and instinctive norms of life among men endowed with a soul and becoming brutish with the foulest sins of bestial man.

Wherever God is not present, Satan is [there]. Wherever man no longer has a living soul [i.e. if he has changed his soul into a damned soul by mortal sin], he is a beast-man. The beast loves the beasts. Carnal lust - more than carnal because it is seized and sharpened by Satan - makes him avid for all unions [for sex]. What is horrid and disturbing, like a nightmare, strikes him as beautiful and seductive. What is licit does not satisfy him. It is too little and too honest. He is mad with lust for what is illicit, degrading, and bestial.

Those [Cain and his descendants] who were no longer children of God, because, with their father [Cain] and like their father, they had fled God to accept Satan, ventured precisely into what was illicit, degrading, and bestial. And they had monsters as sons and daughters. Those monsters who now impress your scientists and lead them into error [Darwin's and others' dopey theories of evolution]. Those monsters who, because of their powerful physique and savage beauty and ferocious boldness - results of the union between Cain and the beasts, between the most beastly children of Cain and the brutes - seduced the children of God - that is, the descendants of Seth through Enos, Cainan, Mahalaleel, Jared, Enoch of Jared - not to be confused with Enoch of Cain [Genesis 4.17] - Methuseleah, Lamech, and Noah, the father of Shem, Ham, and Japhet. It was then that God - to keep the branch of the children of God from being entirely corrupted by the branch of the children of men [Cain's branch] - sent the universal deluge to extinguish men's lust under the weight of the waters and destroy the monsters begotten by the lust of the godless, insatiable in sensuality [in sex] because they were aroused by the fires of Satan.

And man, contemporary man, jabbars about somatic lines and zygomatic angles and, in not wanting to admit a Creator, because he is too proud to acknowledge he has been made, he admits descent from the beasts! In order to say to himself, 'By ourselves we evolved from animals to men.' He degrades himself, practices self-degradation, because he refuses to humble himself before God. And he is sinking. Oh, he is really sinking! In the times of the initial corruption [via Cain] his appearance was animal. Now his thought and heart are, and his soul, because of deeper and deeper union with evil, has taken on Satan's visage [of a horrid monster] in too many cases."

Pursuant to the Gospel according to Christ as dictated by Him to Maria Valtorta:

[On 20th July 1943, Our Most Holy Lord Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, the Messiah of the Lord, showed Maria Valtorta a pale vision of what Satan actually looks like: a horrid monster.]

Vision of Satan: the horrid monster

Maria Valtorta describes Satan -

"... It is since the evening of the 18th that the good Jesus shows me a horrifying, ugly beast, so horrifying that it disgusts me and I want to scream. And the good Jesus makes me understand that its appearance is always less than the reality, because no human reality could reach an exact imitation of supreme Beauty [Jesus] and supreme Ugliness [Satan].

Now I describe the ugly beast [Satan].

I seem to see a great hole: black, black, and very deep. I understand that it is very deep, but I do not see anything but its opening, completely occupied by a horrible monster. It's not a serpent, it's not a crocodile, it's not a dragon, it's not a bat, but it has something of all four [of these].

A long and pointed head without ears and with two sly and savage eyes which are always hunting for prey; a very wide mouth and armed with quite sharp teeth, always intent on catching in flight anything careless that arrives within range of its jaws. To sum up, its head has much the form of a serpent, and its teeth are like a crocodile's. A long and flexible neck allows much agility to the dreadful head.

An ugly, slippery body covered with skin like that of an eel, that is, without scales (to help you understand), with a colour between rust, violet, dark grey. . . I really don't know. It even has the colour of leeches.

At its shoulders and at its haunches (I say 'haunches' because there its throbbing belly swollen with prey ends, and its long tail begins which terminates in a point), are attached four short and webbed paws like those of a crocodile. At its shoulders, two ugly bat-wings.

The ugly beast does not move its great, loathsome body. It only moves its tail, which writhes back and forth like an 'S,' and it moves its horrible head with its fascinating eyes and murdering jaws.

O Divine Mercy! What an ugly, awful beast! From its black den spurts darkness and horror. I assure you that yesterday, as I saw it with a very vivid accuracy -- and didn't understand what it was about to do -- the desire came to me to scream with disgust. A good thing that I saw it was never looking toward me as if from revulsion. A mutual revulsion if ever there was one. If this is a pale representation of Satan, what ever will he [really] be? It's to die twice over just to see him.

A good thing too that if, in one corner, was the awful beast, very near [also] was my Jesus [present]: white, beautiful, blond . . . Light in light!

Comparing the luminous, comforting figure of Christ with that of the other, His most sweet, clear gaze with that wicked one of the other [Satan], is truly to weep with unhappy sinners destined for the second [the beast], because they have rejected Jesus.

Well then, now that I have seen . . . I don't want to see him [Satan] anymore because he is too ugly. I will pray that the least possible [number] of such unfortunate [sinners] end up in his clutches, but I pray the good God to take away from me this sight."

A vision of Hell shown by Our Lady of Fatima, the Madonna, to the three visionaries at Fatima:

"Our Lady showed us a great sea of fire which seemed to be under the earth. Plunged in this fire were demons and souls in human form, like transparent burning embers, all blackened or burnished bronze, floating about in the conflagration, now raised into the air by the flames that issued from within themselves together with great clouds of smoke, now falling back on every side like sparks in a huge fire, without weight or equilibrium, and amid shrieks and groans of pain and despair, which horrified us and made us tremble with fear. The demons could be distinguished by their terrifying and repulsive likeness to frightful and unknown animals, all black and transparent. This vision lasted but an instant. How can we ever be grateful enough to our kind heavenly Mother [the Madonna], who had already prepared us by promising, in the first Apparition, to take us to heaven [for a vision]. Otherwise, I think we would have died of fear and terror [on seeing Hell].

A description of Hell given by Saint Maria Faustina, who was taken down to the Abyss by an angel to view the horrors of Hell and to come back to earth and tell what she saw:

"Today, I was led by an angel to the Chasms of Hell. It is a place of great torture; how awesomely large and extensive it is! The kinds of tortures I saw:

- (1) The First Torture that constitutes hell is: The loss of God.
- (2) The Second is: Perpetual remorse of conscience.
- (3) The Third is: That one's condition will never change.
- (4) The Fourth is: The Fire that will penetrate the soul without destroying it. A terrible suffering, since it is a purely spiritual fire, lit by God's anger.
- (5) The Fifth Torture is: Continual darkness and a terrible suffocating smell, and despite the darkness, the devils and the souls of the damned see each other and all the evil, both of others and their own.
- (6) The Sixth Torture is: The constant company of Satan.
- (7) The Seventh Torture is: Horrible despair, hatred of God, vile words, curses and blasphemies. These are the Tortures suffered by all the damned together, but that is not the end of the sufferings.

INDESCRIBABLE SUFFERINGS. There are special tortures destined for particular souls. These are the torments of the senses. Each soul undergoes terrible and indescribable sufferings related to the manner in which it has sinned.

I WOULD HAVE DIED. There are caverns and pits of torture where one form of agony differs from another. I would have died at the very sight of these tortures if the omnipotence of God had not supported me.

NO ONE CAN SAY THERE IS NO HELL. Let the sinner know that he will be tortured throughout all eternity, in those senses which he made use of to sin.

I AM WRITING THIS AT THE COMMAND OF GOD, SO THAT NO SOUL MAY FIND AN EXCUSE BY SAYING THERE IS NO HELL, OR THAT NOBODY HAS EVER BEEN THERE, AND SO NO ONE CAN SAY WHAT IT IS LIKE...how terribly souls suffer there! Consequently, I pray even more fervently for the conversion of sinners. I incessantly plead God's mercy upon them. O My Jesus, I would rather be in agony until the end of the world, amidst the greatest sufferings, than offend you by the least sin."

Pursuant to the Gospel according to Christ as dictated by Him to Maria Valtorta:

Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, says -

[In this excerpt, Jesus outlines the evidence on the existence of the true and only God, One and Triune. The sermon was preached to the Jews near Ephraim in Palestine (now mostly Israel) circa 31 A.D. 'Atheists curse God by denying Him.' Upon earthly death, if unrepentant and unforgiven, an atheist goes to the tortures and fires of Hell for all eternity.]

"The first word of the Father and Lord is this: 'I am the Lord your God.'

There is not one instant of the day in which this word is not uttered by the voice of God and is not written by His finger. Where? Everywhere. It is repeated continuously by everything. By the grass and stars, by water and fire, by wool and food, by light and darkness, by health and illness, by wealth and poverty. Everything says: 'I am the Lord. You [mankind] received that from Me. One thought of Mine gives it to you, another thought takes it away from you, there is no power of armies or of defence that can shield you from My will.' It shouts in the voice of the wind, it sings in the murmur of water, it gives off scent in the sweet smell of flowers, it is engraved on mountain tops, and it whispers, speaks, calls, shouts in consciences: 'I am the Lord your God.'

Never forget that! Do not close your eyes, your ears, do not suffocate your consciences, so that you may not hear that word. In any case it stands and the moment will come when it will be written by the fiery finger of God on the walls of banqueting halls or on the waves of rough seas, on the smiling lips of a child, or on the pallor of a dying man, on a sweet smelling rose or on a fetid sepulchre. The moment will come when in the exhilaration of wine and pleasure, in the bustle of business, in the rest at night, during a lonely walk, it will raise its voice and say: 'I am the Lord your God' and not the flesh that you kiss so avidly, not the food that you gobble so greedily, and not the gold [money] that you hoard so stingily, and not the bed in which you idle, and neither taciturnity, nor loneliness, nor sleep can silence it. 'I am the Lord your God,' the Companion Who will not abandon you, the Guest you cannot drive out. Are you good? Then the guest and companion is a good Friend. Are you wicked and guilty? Then the guest and companion becomes the angry King and gives no peace. But He does not leave you. Separation from God is granted only to damned souls [who go to Hell upon earthy death]. But the separation is their unappeasable and eternal torture [in Hell]."

Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, says -

[In this excerpt, Jesus outlines a major reason why some people commit suicide: sinful living. Clearly, the solution for them is really quite simple: to repent of their sins, to convert back to God, One and Triune, and to pray. There is no other alternative.]

"Be careful, because the soul can die [become damned through mortal sin] before the body [earthly death] and you may unknowingly carry around a putrid soul. The dying of a soul is so imperceptible! Like the death of a flower. Not a cry, not a convulsion... it inclines its flame like a tired corolla, and goes out. Later, sometimes after a long time, sometimes immediately after, the body realises it is carrying a verminous corpse within itself, it becomes mad with fear and commits suicide to avoid such union... Oh! it does not avoid it! [Because then] It falls on to a swarm of snakes in Gehenna [Hell] with its very verminous soul."

Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, says -

[In this excerpt, Jesus explains the motherly love of His Mother, the perpetual ever Virgin Mary, the Madonna, in trying to save us from perdition.]

"If it were not for the care of [Virgin] Mary, for the prayers of Mary, the human race would no longer exist. I would have annulled it, for your [mankind] way of life has truly touched the depths of Evil, and Justice is wounded and Patience has passed all limits and Punishment is at the ready. But [Virgin] Mary is there, sheltering you under Her mantle, and if, with a mere gaze, I can bring Paradise to its knees and make the stars tremble, I can do nothing against My Mother.

I am Her God, but I am always Her Baby. I rested on that Heart [of Virgin Mary] in the first sleep of infancy [at birth] and in the last one of death [on a Cross], and I know all the secrets of that Heart. I know, then, that to punish you [mankind] would mean giving the Mother [Virgin Mary] of the human race, the true Mother, a stabbing pain, for She always hopes She can lead you to Her Son [Jesus].

I am Her God, but She is My Mother. And I, perfect in everything, am your Master in this, too -- in love for the Mother. To those [still faithful] in the world who still believe I say, 'The salvation of the world is in [Virgin] Mary.'

If you [mankind] knew how God is withdrawing into the depths, in the face of the ever-mounting tide of crimes that you [mankind] commit - you [mankind] that are deicides, you that are fratricides, you that break the Law [Ten Commandments], you that are fornicators, you that are adulterers, you that are thieves, you that are a den of vice - you would tremble. But you have turned into fools.

Previously it was I that was the bridge between the world and Heaven. But truly, in the face of your obstinacy in Evil, the Christ is withdrawing, as He once withdrew from Jerusalem, for 'the hour has not yet come [to punish sinful mankind],' and the Christ, awaiting the hour, is leaving you [mankind] to your Evil so that you may do it.

Now, [Virgin] Mary is the only bridge left. But if you [mankind] disdain Her, too, you shall be crushed. I do not allow the Woman [Virgin Mary] upon Whom the Holy Spirit descended to conceive Me, the Son of God and the Saviour of the world, to be disparaged."
