I firmly believe that same sex couples deserve every right to get married as they are just two people in love, like any other couple. And if they want to spend the rest of their lives together, I think they should be legally allowed to do that. I am absolutely disgusted by how people treat them and use religion, politics etc as an excuse. All the bullying and violence they have to endure just for loving someone of their own sex, it is just atrocious. I believe that if same sex couples are allowed to get married, it will foster a sense of equality, that they are denied of. Marriage is a bond between two people in love, regardless of their sexual orientation, hence there is no reason for us to keep it from homosexual couples.
