Please do not redefine the marriage act. All data gathering throughout the world show that the best way for raising children to become well balanced & responsible citizens; is in a committed loving relationship between one man & one woman as defined in the current marriage act which protects the rights of children to a birth mother & birth father, for each bring their own unique qualities to the raising of children to become well rounded & responsible contributing citizens. The Liberal party has always upheld marriage as it stands. It has served our society well . Please do not redefine or reengineer the marriage act.
