To Whom It May Concern,

KIRAN PRABHAKAR PHADKE

I have known Kiran personally for over 35 years as a friend and client of mine. Accordingly I have had ample opportunity to form an opinion on his professional capabilities and character.

Kiran is an experienced medical professional having been in practice for many years. I have always found Kiran to be a person of the highest character. He has shown himself to be completely honest and trustworthy and has always conducted himself in a totally professional manner. In all my dealings with Kiran, I have found him to be competent and of good character. Without question Kiran is loyal, possesses integrity and can always be relied on.

Kiran is highly regarded by his patients and colleagues, as well as the community at large. Kiran has always found time to be of assistance to his patients, fellow practitioners and the community at large.

Kiran is punctual with all statutory requirements and commitments. His taxation affairs are immaculate.

Yours Faithfully,
