

INQUIRY INTO ROAD TOLLING

Name: Name suppressed
Date received: 24 February 2017

Partially
Confidential

It is not fair to charge tolls for low income workers of western Sydney, especially given the recent construction works have done little to alleviate traffic through this area. Public transport is not a suitable alternative for many who have tools and equipment. Additionally, the public transport in cases like myself, adds an additional 45 minutes to my journey.