This report outlines what occurred in which I filed a bullying and harassment claim.

This is detailed report which outlines the circumstances surrounding my claim.

At first my claim was refused by the Insurance Company then after they interviewed and investigated the matter overturned the decision made finding the claim in my favour.

I am disgusted that after months of hell and stress that the impact this has caused me and my family is beyond comprehension.

The bullying is continuing with the decision from being in my favour and yet hit with another complaint. And so it goes on! Is it that hate the staff winning and standing up for themselves or is Management on such a power trip that they get enjoyment out of all of this?

It's disgusting that the NSW Police Force allows commanders and management staff to treat people terribly and taking away all their rights.

I feel let down by the very system that is suppose to protect the public and me.

Bullying is rife in the NSW Police Force and they do nothing to stop it.
