NEW SOUTH WALES

Music in NSW especially Sydney CBD is on a rapid decline. My daughter is a musician, yes shes also a university student paying her fees. Music is her career and she is at the moment travelling from Sydney as far as Young to be able to get gigs in order to fund her university.

If lockout laws were handled differently a 23 yr old girl would be able to find local gigs but these are becoming fewer.

Please decide to put a halt on lock out laws and lock up people who cause trouble.

Playing at music venues is a fathers pay check, a mothers paycheck or a young persons pay cheque to fund the unforgiving fees on university. She wants to Master in Music tgerapy and give back to the community. Dont take this away from her by closing music venues.
