INQUIRY INTO SYDNEY STADIUMS STRATEGY

There are not enough seats filled in the current stadium. There are plenty of other things that we need to spend money on. Why three stadiums. I think this is an ego run of the state government and pressure from the stadiums committee and Alan Jones. Which apparently is more important than the many voters who oppose this idea.

The CEO of the Centennial Park Trust seemed to think the rebuilding of the stadium was unnecessary pointing to a renovation of the building. So many people who cant afford to go there, so many other choices on which to spend money that benefit far more people
