

INQUIRY INTO CEMETERIES AND CREMATORIA
AMENDMENT REGULATION 2018

Name: shaun Davies
Date Received: 28 August 2018

Jingeri, I am a Yugambeh/Nganduwal man whose people live on the border of NSW and QLD. Our country has existed long before any state border split us. The rights and obligations of our clans continue to this day on both sides of the now QLD/NSW border. It is against our law and custom to disturb the resting places of the dead. Our law and custom is the highest law of our people and can not be altered by acts of foreign peoples. My family and I will never accept such proposals to desecrate the dead and any such legislation is a violation of our people's sovereignty and religion. Nyanyahbu
