I can not believe that this was passed. It is disrespectful and really bad karma I don't see any good reason as why this needs to pass and why this is an issue It should be overturned immediately. When the dead are buried that is exactly the way it should stay in the place they were initially laid to rest. It will also put undue monetary pressure on some who can't afford it. Why was this put through with no regard to public opinion ? I am ashamed that an Australians would think this is ok and pass this.
