INQUIRY INTO IMPACT OF THE WESTCONNEX PROJECT

Name: Mr William ONeill

NSW State government is supposed to act on behalf of the wider community, not the special interest groups who donate. This project was highly questionable from the beginning, when Nick Greiner rejected all the advice from transport experts, none of which supported more money on roads over public transport. There should be a complete and transparent investigation into this project. It would no doubt find that state government officials have not acted in the best interests of the residents of Sydney.
