AMENDMENT REGULATION 2018

Name: Name suppressed

Dear Sir/Madam, I feel absolute horror at the thought of my beloved late husbands remains being dug up and put who knows where! I'm a pensioner with no money behind me, like so many thousands of other people. This proposal really discriminates between people who have the funds to ensure their loved ones remains are left in peace, and those like me who can't afford the peace of mind that comes with that. Grief is hard enough to live with let alone having this horrible eventuality to deal with. Please have some respect and compassion for ordinary people and reject this proposal completely.

Sincerely,
