

Submission
No 137

INQUIRY INTO CEMETERIES AND CREMATORIA
AMENDMENT REGULATION 2018

Name: Name suppressed

Date Received: 1 September 2018

---

Partially Confidential

I have generations of my family buried in NSW since the 1820s and find the idea of digging them up quite upsetting. They bought their graves to rest in peace and that should not be taken away. When researching the family, seeing the graves and headstones can give you more information as well as a feeling of peace knowing where they are. I feel that the public should be given more say in this matter and more time to comment.