I think that this idea lacks any proper consideration of the impact on people. The grave etc are not rental space. They are the final resting place for a reason. That controllers of cemeteries have issues , is not our problem. They cant just ditch people out to make room for others. I have no personal attachment to dead bodies but i believe others do and respect their needs. I have recently begun visiting the sites of family by doing the history buff thing . Its intersting for me to see them there, but i also see the flowers and notes , and the people vsiting and the new graves and the whole thing is bigger than this govt making a few bob. I feel your efforst are better spent building roads to rival mc eschers mad world, and leave the dead to rest in peace. Have you ever been to recolletta in BA argentina?
