This hospital is brilliant, the staff both medical and administrative are the same. This inquiry is a waste of my taxpayer dollars initiated by vested interests in keeping Mona Vale open. It is supported by the various medical bodies because they would rather suckle on the tax payer breast than have to work for their money in the REAL WORLD like the rest of us. The body polity often wonders why they are so disconnected from the average populace, stunts like this are why.

I had occasion to visit this hospital, shortly after it opened, when a close member of my family was admitted. After a week of both visiting and consulting with medical staff I can say it is head and shoulders above Royal North Shore better than the SAN and on a par with the Marta, all of which I have had to attend as out-patient and/or in-patient or relative of same in the last few years so I can speak from actual experience.

Your inquiry is unlikely to provoke the vast majority of us average Australians to respond because we are all fully aware of how pointless it and you all are and mostly have more important things to do in our lives. I make this special effort because it upsets me to see hard working people denigrated by vested interests.
