

INQUIRY INTO PROVISIONS OF THE RIGHT TO FARM BILL 2019

Name: Name suppressed
Date Received: 30 September 2019

Partially Confidential

It is not right that animal abusers are allowed to hide what they do but others are not allowed to bring the behaviour into public awareness. I strongly object to the idea of punishing whistle blowers or activists who publicise cruelty on animal farms. If those animal farmers have nothing to hide, make it mandatory for there to be CCTVs in all sheds and procedure yards that can be monitored randomly by an independent official. That would be money spent more wisely.