INQUIRY INTO PROVISIONS OF THE RIGHT TO FARM
BILL 2019

Hello

I am a NSW resident, mother and Environmental Scientist. I have peacefully protested on a great number of issues that were both locally and globally significant. Protesting has been a crucial form of public communication for over a century and many significant changes have come as a result. Protesting is a basic freedom of speech and human right. To make it illegal would be destroying the very fabric of our responsibilities as citizens of this planet. I strongly urge this Right to Farm Bill to be reconsidered.
