INQUIRY INTO PROVISIONS OF THE RIGHT TO FARM
BILL 2019

Dear Parliament of NSW, I believe the proposed 'Ag Gag' laws are unconscionable unless they are accompanied with commensurate, strong new measures to prevent animal cruelty by livestock owners.

Unless there is, and is perceived to be a balanced approach, the parliament will be rightly accused of preventing whistleblowers from exposing cruelty, and supporting farmers who indulge in it.

History will judge the parliament accordingly.

Yours sincerely, Sandra Ellims
