INQUIRY INTO PROVISIONS OF THE RIGHT TO FARM
BILL 2019

Name: Mr Ian Parisotto
Date Received: 28 September 2019

As the backbone of the country farmers seem to have very few rights. Either from activists or authorities (and in some cases who have too much power) who do not consider or value what farmers do, their contribution and the flow on effect to the community. We all have our views on how things should be done but that does not give the right to individuals or organizations to interfere in what we are doing as individuals to the benefit of the country.
