INQUIRY INTO PROVISIONS OF THE RIGHT TO FARM
BILL 2019

Name: Mr Darryl Adams
Date Received: 28 September 2019

Darryl Adams' submission to Parliament in support of the proposed "Right To Farm" bill.

It is vitally important, to the continued supply of quality food, that individual farmers have unfettered freedom to care for and manage livestock and farming land in a way that they alone know best. Interference with the process of farming and trespass on private farming land by ill-informed individuals or groups only limits the farmer's ability to safely and efficiently produce food. Ill-informed interference with a doctor attending to a patient would likely result in police action and prosecution. The same protection should be afforded to our farmers.

Yours faithfully

Darryl Adams
