INQUIRY INTO PROVISIONS OF THE RIGHT TO FARM BILL 2019

Organisation: FOUR PAWS Australia

Date Received: 30 September 2019

FOUR PAWS opposes any further attempts to restrict information regarding the standard of care given to farmed animals in New South Wales. The Right To Farm Bill brings risks to transparency within animal-industries, something that the Australian community is clearly demanding.

Transparency is a basic right for consumers, needed to enable informed decision making and societal progress. Alongside other animal protection groups, FOUR PAWS opposes the Right To Farm Bill and instead encourages the NSW government to prioritise achieving better levels of transparency and animal welfare within the states agricultural industries.
