Dear Comittee,

I would implore you to reconsider your poor judgement on this matter. You obviously have not put yourself in the farmers shoes as there is no difference between vegans coming onto the properties of legal farmers who are running a business and coming into your home and going to your kitchen and taking out all of your meat products.

These born again herbivores are not only;

trespassing,

creating havoc,

creating distress & mental anguish, accelerating possible suicides,

creating a lie & indoctrinating minors,

They ARE breaking the law!!!

When is all this garbage and bullshit going to stop and you as so called smart politicians stick up for us the hard farmer instead of the money tree!!!

What would happen if all the human carnivours started trespassing on all the vegetable farmers and creating the havoc, these mindless vegans are doing?

I am sure the verdict would be different!!!

PLEASE I EMPLORE YOU TO GROW A BRAIN AND SEE THAT WHAT THESE VEGANS IS WRONG!!!
