INQUIRY INTO PROVISIONS OF THE RIGHT TO FARM
BILL 2019

Name: Mr Geoff Brimley
Date Received: 27 September 2019

Farmers are currently experiencing, possibly, the greatest drought and stock reductions in memory. They are entitled to make the best living possible for themselves and their family as are all Australians. They are also entitled to do this without outside and illegal interference. All steps necessary to protect their rights should be taken by Parliament and the law enforced by those so charged to do.

Thank you.
