INQUIRY INTO PROVISIONS OF THE RIGHT TO FARM
BILL 2019

I believe it is the right of every farmer to protect and preserve the land which he owns or leases for whatever use he intends. No-one should be invaded by trespassers who think they are entitled to steal or destroy animals, machinery at will. These same people would no doubt protest furiously should their home or property be invaded by strangers. A boundary fence is there for a purpose. It defines property limits and as such should not be trespassed upon with ill intent.
