INQUIRY INTO PROVISIONS OF THE RIGHT TO FARM BILL 2019

Name: Name suppressed

I hereby submit the following regarding the Right To Farm Bill 2019.

I believe our farmers need greater protection from radical groups who target farms and farmers and use unethical and often dangerous practices to carry out their outrageous aims.

As we live in a democracy, these minority groups have ample other avenues to voice their concerns without disrupting law abiding citizens.

The misguided groups among us feel they are exempt from all civilized actions, both moral and statutory. Currently, Law abiding citizens, the Police and the Courts appear to be powerless to deter them.

It would appear more specific legislation is required with suitable penalties, including jail terms if necessary, to deter further threats to farmers and other law abiding citizens going about their daily routines.

I respectfully insist my concerns outlined above, be satisfactorily addressed by all relevant members of Parliament.
