INQUIRY INTO PROVISIONS OF THE RIGHT TO FARM
BILL 2019

I strongly object to this proposed Bill as our rights are steadily being eroded. It is essential that any animal cruelty is uncovered and cruelty does exist on some of our farms and in some of our abattoirs. A point in case was an illegal abattoir operating on amweek ends in Victoria, I think it was. Without an animal activist uncovering this it would not have been discovered. Cruelty has been uncovered on farms. It is imperative that people are allowed to bring this to the attention of authorities such as RSPCA. This proposed Bill would be giving the go-ahead to those who don't consider animal welfare important.
