INQUIRY INTO PROVISIONS OF THE RIGHT TO FARM
BILL 2019

Name: Mr Samuel Grew

Date Received: 1 October 2019

This bill is an obvious attempt to entrench further into secrecy heinous practices that have already been long hidden from the public.

I do not want to live in a place where the maximum fine for animal cruelty is $5,500, and the fine for revealing it is up to $22,000.

It is crystal clear that no individual entering a farm to reveal animal cruelty is doing so for any reason other than to alleviate immense suffering.

Future generations will look back on this bill as a dark stain of injustice on Australian history.
