I feel strongly in that Wild animals are not for our entertainment. These animals all have a purpose on the earth and each animal is unique for its purpose. Wild animals give the wrong impression to humans that it is ok to keep them in cages and as pets. These animals were never for either of these situations. It causes many issues in and all over the USA and other countries. Please stop this from happening. One last word for example: A wild animal such as a Tiger is used in a circus used over and over for human entertainment but if this animal's behavior attacks a person (which tigers do hunt and stalk for their food) the animal is killed. Now my issue is this is wrong the animal is doing what is nature is in other words humans have no business messing with these animals for any reason.
