INQUIRY INTO ANIMAL CRUELTY LAWS IN NEW SOUTH WALES

Name: Mrs Virginia Burns

Date Received: 7 November 2019

I am disgusted that our laws are so weak. The man who tortured the emu out at Dubbo walked away with a huge grin on his face.

The man who pulled the head off the kookaburra in Fremantle will not even be charged. What has happened to the cop in South Australia who stoned the wombat to death?

What will happen to the person who threw a dog from his moving car at Werrington at the weekend?

It should also be against the law to clear habitat resulting in the direct loss of homes for native animals. How is this NOT cruelty?

This should apply to the Australian government too.

Why should a government be exempt from being charged under animal cruelty laws?

They they support the export of live animals and it's been PROVEN time and time again that these animals suffer!

Our laws against humans conducting cruel acts against animals are pathetic. They need strengthening, clarifying, advertising and strongly enforcing.
