INQUIRY INTO EXHIBITION OF EXOTIC ANIMALS IN CIRCUSES AND EXHIBITION OF CETACEANS IN NEW SOUTH WALES

Name: Mrs Julie Collins
Date Received: 11 November 2019

While it is theoretically true that animals who are used for entertainment purposes to be humanely treated throughout their lives, history has shown this not to be the case.

Generating money while animals are being coerced and mistreated throughout their lives makes us more cruel and inhumane than the animals we are supposed to protect and care for.

Animal predators only kill to eat, they do not imprison and torture for momentary gratification.

Only humans over breed the entertainment animal species, then subject them to coercion, physical abuse, starvation and training and to perform unnatural acts. We encourage the State government to transition the economics of animal entertainment into tourism, hospitality and manufacturing industries while making animal entertainment industries unprofitable.
