

INQUIRY INTO ANIMAL CRUELTY LAWS IN NEW SOUTH WALES

Background:

My relationship to a gentle pet dog " " is a petsitter and a neighbour of her owners family" between early 2018 and March 2019. I live next door to the family.

On the 5th of March 2019, my relationship to family broke down after the increasing sign of dog's poor health and one whole night of dog barking in distress being left at home alone and irresponsible owners told me to get 'ear plugs'.

The 6th of March on the following day, I visited RSPCA head office in Yagoona and filed the cruelty report with supporting evidence. On the 7th of March I lodged the matter online with Innerwest council.

I last saw dog walking in my house, looking distressed and hungry in the late afternoon on the 7th of March 2019. Her death has now been confirmed.

My pledge to Parliament of New South Wales and The Government of Commonwealth of Australia for taking appropriate actions to preventing and instigating the current animal laws, local councils and NSW RSPCA processes and policies in place.

With my best regards,
