I submit my total opposition to animals being forced to perform in order to make money for the people who have ownership over them.

This includes animals such as lions, dolphins and monkeys. These animals are held captive and endure enormous suffering and are not able to live a normal life with others of their species in their natural habitats. They are forced to entertain against their will. I call this animal abuse and it must end.

I call on the NSW government to end this animal cruelty as soon as possible. The time is over for such cruel 'entertainment'.
