OVERSIGHT BODIES AND THE PARLIAMENT OF NEW SOUTH WALES

To whom this may concern, I am writing today to call for adequate funding to be provided to independent bodies such as the Law Enforcement Conduct Commission in New South Wales. The Law Enforcement Conduct Commission is reported to be severely underfunded to the point where 98% of all complaints remain unprocessed. As police hold such a significant stake in our communities, it is important to ensure bodies that review the complaints of policing staff are adequately funded to process and investigate complaints in a timely manner. This is to ensure the safety of both the police force and the community that it serves.
