The Law Enforcement Conduct Commission is severely underfunded and is unable to fully investigate 98% of complaints made against the NSW Police Force.

It's clear that insufficient funding to bodies like the LECC and ICAC allows misconduct and corruption to flourish.

Police abuse and political corruption are not acceptable and I demand these oversight bodies receive proper resources to do their job.

As a young person living in NSW I am severely disappointed in and ashamed of the way this state is being run in regards to police enforcement. Please give me a reason to believe in and reignite my respect for the law enforcement body of this state.
