Instead of destroying SO many lovely heritage buildings, WHY NOT make use of them and turn the area into a TOP historical precinct to 'rival the Rocks' - there could be cafes, historical tours, ghost tours, accommodation, employing many guides, actors, chefs, etc, etc - THAT is what tourists would like !!!!! : ) ( locals too ) and you would make a LOT of $$$ too !!! MUCH MORE than the just the 'Powerhouse museum' !!!!!

Nearly all countries have their own version of 'the powerhouse' - and like me, like MOST people, people go once or twice and that's it !!! - It's fun for a few hours, but once you leave, you forget ALL About it !!! The ONLY reason I went back was because our friends wanted to and ONCE cuz I got free tickets to see the Star Wars exhibit - THAT'S IT !!!

Spending ( i.e. - wa$ting !!! ) $o much money on such a boring pointless concept is truly futile - and THEN destroying heritage in the process, that is unforgiveable !!!

You may choose to listen to my words or wisdom or not ! But KNOW THIS ! I have predicted SO many things and they have ALL come true !!! ( and this, sadly includes wishing those who have wronged me to suffer illness and have accidents and have their lives ruined ! ) - So I SINCERELY hope you listen to me !

a Historical precinct would be GREAT !!!!! It would cost SO MUCH LESS to create, using existing buildings, employing non-famous actors for historical roles ( there can be other entertainment too ) and the adage to tourism would be GREAT !!! Culturally, and $$$ TOO !!!

a BORING ugly Powerhouse museum that people will SOON tire of ??? nah ! : )

( PS - that design looks like some architect's kid was mucking around with some paddle-pop sticks !!!!! : ) : ) - an insult not only to the word architecture, but to humanity itself !!!!! : ) : )

Ok, I'm done - Please, let's go for the Historical Precinct idea !!! It's a Win-win-win-win !!!!! : ) : ) : )
