NSW Government sold taxi plates at auction up to $250,000. I bought taxi plates in 1987 for $141,000 paid government stamp duty $3,425. I bought another plate in 1998 for $139,000. I paid stamp duty $3,355. That was investment for retirement.

Five years ago I was getting over $4,000 a month. Now I can not get $50 a month. I hope all the taxi Owners and taxi drivers and their families will remember this government at the next election.

I immigrate here in 1968 from communist country. This government reminds of my country.
