I reject the changes suggested in the Firearms Regulation (2017) Amendments Bill in their entirety.

This Bill potentially criminalises normal, everyday Australians and leaves far too much room for interpretation from Police.

To simply have the schematics (plans) of a favourite historical firearm, say an Australian made .303 for instance, does not suggest the person is, or intends to be, an illegal weapons manufacturer.

This is just example of the myriad of poorly considered amendments in this Bill.

We will not support this Bill or the Government that puts it forward.
