

INQUIRY INTO LONG-TERM SUSTAINABILITY OF THE DAIRY INDUSTRY IN NEW SOUTH WALES

There is a right way to farm dairy cows, an ethical and sustainable way. NSW is doing none of these things. They treat their cows like property that can be owned and manipulated to their owners wishes instead of treating them as they are - living, breathing, feeling animals that deserve respect. Dairy farming in NSW needs to be overhauled, with a centre around animal welfare.
