Hi My name is Ryan William Fitzroy

I spend 2 hrs typing up a letter to submit, only to come to the realisation that logic morals and facts simply dont come to mind of lawmakers and people in parliamentm when making life changing laws. I will not explain my position on the matter, id rather demand what i want, because of this, which is sad but these are the times we live in.

As a Australian citizen, i demand that this new legislation be binned, and the people who come up with it resign.

Again id put my position forward however like all good Australians, our facts, logic fall on deaf ears.
