

INQUIRY INTO LONG-TERM SUSTAINABILITY OF THE DAIRY INDUSTRY IN NEW SOUTH WALES

Continuously around me I feel a sense of hopelessness in the Australian government.

If the government doesn't put more resource into sustainability, what hope do we have of surviving as individuals? Eventually the earth will be so damaged we won't be able to grow crops, feed the cows, sell the milk...what will we all do then?

I wish the government cared about our earth more so that we could feel hopeful about the future.
