I'm writing in support of the land owner, to have freedom of choice, to keep their home that they've worked hard for, or take an offer too good to refuse. Forcing a person out of their homes, their dreams and future is akin to inflammatory rule by dictatorship. Being Australian is to have hope & the reward of hard work. Forcing people out of their homes is criminal & akin to stealing "legally". Make a fair & "reasonable for all decision", to demonstrate the support of a democratic government (that we hope & trust leads & governs our country). Advance Australia Fair.
