I cannot believe that kangaroos are hunted and killed let alone in such awful ways. Fencing them so that they have no access to food and water who in their right mind would consider this humane? Shooting them leaves them wounded and to die slow and painfully and if they have joeys they are bludgeoned to death! These are living, sentient beings. What you call a cull is murder and it is also sadistic. It is intolerable that this is legal and allowed to go on when most people would cringe at the thought of doing this. Horrific and sadistic conduct by all who condone this. You need to rethink this.
