INQUIRY INTO HEALTH AND WELLBEING OF KANGAROOS AND OTHER MACROPODS IN NEW SOUTH WALES

In Australia, almost 90 million kangaroos and wallabies have been killed for commercial purposes in the last 20 years. This is a disgrace. What a shameful way to treat an Aboriginal totem and our national emblem. Evidence now suggests that the long-term survival of our Kangaroos is at risk, so now more than ever, we need to end the slaughter of kangaroos and wallabies. Stop killing.
