I disagree to TAX every single land owner that has rezoned land or future rezoned land. I object in taxing mum and dad landowners on the sale of our family homes. We did not ask for our land to be acquired by the government. We did not ask for the airport to be built here. We would be living here until we die otherwise. However I understand that land is acquired by government and as such we should be paid fairly. Why should we lose out when we have lived here for many years and our house is our investment for retirement and the government want to take this from us. How is it fair that the guy next door will sell to a company to build businesses or apartments etc and because we are in the government acquisition we are going to be taxed. This is disgraceful.
