33 years ago my wife and I purchased our land because of the lifestyle we wanted to give our children. We raised our children and grandchildren with the hope that they will continue doing the same. We sacrificed a lot of time and money on fuel and car upkeep by living this far from our jobs and schools, driving our children to and back from schools 25km away every day for at least 10 years before buses appeared in our put hole streets not knowing that one day we'll be forced to change our lifestyle and pay tax on what we have already been taxed for in stamp duty and exorbitant council land rates.

Im 69 nine years of age and for 54 I have been contributing to this country paying taxes and God willing I'll continue to do so till I'm no longer able to. It's sad and shameful to be facing this stressful issue at our age.

We pray that the evil spirit that lingers in the hearts of ungodly, hungry, ruthless, careless, socialist, power hungry politicians be eliminated and fairness and good will prevails.
