This is an outrageous tax. Is this the only way the GOVT can make money by taxing families on their family home? This tax goes after the mums and dads who have worked their entire life to provide for their families. You are taxing the wrong people. The only people making money are the developers. The mums and dads still need to replace their home and if this tax is passed - you are literally hitting the back pocket of your own constituents. The DEVELOPERS need to pay this tax.
