You are wanting to tax innocent mums and dads who purchased land years ago not wanting a rezoning. We have already paid a lot of money in stamp duty, council rates and yet we have no infrastructure, pot holes, no foot paths, no sewer , public transport has been slow and now you want to slog us again for something we have worked hard for and this is our home. The developers will be the big winners when it comes to our property and what about the stupid amounts of money this government paid for acres not so long ago to a wealth property owner not mums and dads who have to relocate! And much further away if we want to be able to live on acres. This is nothing but greed!
